The Washingtons did try to hit the ball, but in only three junings could they do much with Goar, who, while not pitching as well as usual, neverthelers sent them over the plate plenty hot enough for the

Much dissatisfaction is being expressed over the alleged shabby treatment accorded local lovers of the game by the Washing-ton Ball Club.

AUDIENCE LEFT EARLY. Attracted by the high-sounding name of "National League club," many, besides regular attendants at games, were drawn "National Lengue club," many, besides regular attendants at games, were drawn to the ball park. They witnessed a farcical New York 6 0 0 3 0 0 0 1 x-10 exhibition and in the eighth inning, when Terre Haute had scored twenty-six runs, many left the grounds in disgust.

In the first inning Goar, Terre Haute's star twirler, showed some nervousness, and the Senators, on a double and three singles, scoted three runs.

After that the visitors could not find Goar, and rather than meet defeat they

Notes of the Diamond.

The Senators have had a long rest and should win at least half of the remaining games on the present Western trip. Lange is keeping up his good work for Beston is rapidly going down the ladder.

The Beancaters played an errorless game, but the Colts won, nevertheless.

The Pirates had their eye on the ball. O'Brien was a great find for the Colonels. Rusie was batted hard. Bonovan fattened his batting average off the Phillies Doyle is nitting the ball these days. Pitisburg is fighting hard to stay at the top of the ladder.

Cleveland keeps on winning and the leaders will have to watch the Spiders. O'Connor is playing a good first base for If the Oricles expect to win the pennant Manager Hanlon will have to find one or two good twirlers. Carsey seems to have lost his grip. Young Wallace, or the Clevelands, is doing excellent work in the box.

Hoffer held the Reds down to four hits. The Reds played a ragged game yesterday. Nine errors were charged to them.

CLERKS AT A BANQUET.

Lansburgh & Bros.' Employes Enjoyed Themselves and Elected Officers. The ladies and gentlemen members of the Clerk's Mutual Relief Association of Langburgh and Brothers' store met in the long banquet hall of Freund's cafe on Tenth street last night, and after transacting their annual business and electing members of a new board of governors, sat down to a table groaming beneath the weight of the season's choicest viands.

One hundred and thirty, the full membership of the association, were reated at the board, and good cheer was abundant.

There were no speeches, but everybody contributed to make the banquet a lively After the good things provided by Mr. Freund were disposed of the company ad-journed to the parior, and a musical and literary entertainment followed. There is abundant material in the association to-make up an excellent programme, so out-side aid was unnecessary to help them to wind up the evening in the most -pleasant manner.

The new board of governors consists of Messrs. Lewis Goldsmith, E. A. Bachrach, H. G. Brinkley, M. Lyons, C. Iradella, J. L. Campbell, N. Goodman, J. Sonneberg, Leon Goldsmith, R. M. Lawrenson, S. ### Even the Regulars Can't Stand Robbery by the Jones Gang.

ATTENDANCE DIMINISHING

Fagin's Defeat by Key West was the Event of the Day-Murphy Rode Ina Clever Manner-Parvenue Mafutained His Lead-Mirage Easily Beas His Opponent.

The racing at Alexander Island yesterday was just about as poor as possibly it could be. The finishes were tame, the attendance small the betting light, and the number of "dead ans" as large as ever. The folling off in the attendance at this track seems to be the beginning of the end. As the days go by and one by one not only the occasional race-goer, but the regulars, avoid the island, the fact that not even the pockets of the Jones gang will be deep enough to stand the strain much longer becomes more and more apparent. They offer the excuse that the same can be said of St. Asaph's. It is not a walld one, as it may safely be said that the attendance at the upper track is fully go-round.

The public recognize that they cannot possibly beat a game that is rollen to the very core, and if they do vant the Old. Dominion track they leave their bank rolls

As a bockmaker said, who recently took down his state because he could not singlehanded fight the organized ring at the Island, "I have seen tracks that were not on the level. I have been on at places where the bookmakers almost openly jobbed with owners, and I have been up against the game at Muspeth, but the Jones combination here put through steals in the open daylight that would never have been Kazan, at the prehibitive odds of 2 to 5, made his field in the closing event look like monkeys. He was the easiest kind of a winner by ten lergths from Belweed, who was one and a . If before Columbar 1.
